ABOUT

Keekestudio is a full-service creative marketing agency specialized in branding, strategic marketing, visual production and business growth solutions for companies, brands and organizations. The company develops and implements complete marketing and communication solutions that help businesses strengthen their visibility, brand value, customer engagement and commercial growth, both online and offline. Our key services include:
• Social Media Management — Strategic planning, content creation, community management, content calendars, storytelling and daily brand communication for platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, TikTok and LinkedIn.
• Creative Content Production — Professional photography, videography, short-form video production, commercials, reels, branded campaigns and high-end visual storytelling for marketing purposes.
• Branding & Brand Development — Development of brand identities, logos, house styles, brand positioning, visual direction and complete brand strategies for companies looking to position themselves more strongly in the market.
• Advertising & Campaign Management — Development and execution of digital advertising campaigns aimed at brand awareness, lead generation, sales activation and customer growth via Meta Ads and other digital platforms.
• Graphic Design & Visual Communication — Design of commercial visuals, advertisements, billboards, car wraps, corporate branding, presentations, product campaigns and marketing materials.
• Marketing Strategy & Consulting — Strategic guidance for companies on marketing growth, target audience analysis, positioning, sales-oriented communication and long-term brand development.
• Business Visibility Solutions — In collaboration with production and branding partners, we also deliver physical brand visibility such as signage, print branding, event visuals and commercial branding applications.
• Event Marketing & Activations — Development of creative campaigns and pop-up activations.
